THE KNOXVILLE WHIG. Knoxville, Tenn., December 27, 1865.

Treason Rife in West Tennessee! Union Citizens around La Grange

Warned to Leave! TESTIMONY OF NINE UNITED STATES OFFICERS!

The following correspondence has been banded us for publication. Its credibility is beyond all dispute. The intolerant and bloodthirsty spirit of treason, which glutted itself with the lives of Union men in 1861, is evidently untamed about La Grange, and loyal people who have been true to the Government carry their lives in their hands. We present this startling evidence to the country, and ask if the partisans of the rebellion are so bold already, what will be the doom of Union men, if their old tyrants are suffered to regain their political power? LA GRANGE, TENN., Dec. 8, 1865 .- Gov. W. G. Brownlow-Sir; The inclosed copy of a communication was dropped in front of Col. Welcher's store last evening. We desire to call your attention to its character. It seems to us a renewal of the same spirit that existed in 1861. You have already expressed your opinion that "the rebels are not yet whipped," and appearances indicate there may be a renewal at any time of tttacks on Union men. We wish at this time also, to call your attention to the fact that our town authorities were elected last June by themselves, and in July, authorized by Gen. Smith to conduct the affairs of the corporation, which they have continued to do to the present, although not one of them at the time was a legal voter in accordance with the present laws of Tennessee, and we have no evidence they have or can conscientiously take the oath, with perhaps a single exception. The administration of affairs has been generally regulated so as to bring the burden of expense on Union men, most of whom here have served in the United States army, for three or four years-while the all citizens, and heaviest real estate owners, nearly all of whom have sympathised with, or participated in the rebellion, are very nearly exempt from taxation. The general talk is, "The d-d Yankees have destroyed she town and have got to build it up we have paid our taxes and assessments quietly, hoping for a better state of things. The election for a new board will take place on the first Friday in Januthat the whole thing will be controlled by those who for four years have by deed or word tried to destroy our Union. We most respectfully and earnestly request, you take such early steps as will assist us to have a fair standing at that election. For instance, cannot some suitable person be appointed to register votes for the election, that only those properly qualified, and really are true Union men be allowed to vote? We would suggest some one be appointed here, who is a reliable Union man. As we ture. have all resided the necessary period to become legal voters, any one of our number would be acceptable. We have all served in the army, and are ready to again "rally round the flag if needed, and do our best to sustain it with our lives, if need be Hoping you will be pleased to grant us this favor, we remain, Governor, Your obedient servants. WILLIAM F. ALEXANDER. Late Lieut, 7th Tenn, Cav. O. H. WERNECK.

Mallory, of Florida, on the Duty of the Southern States.

S. R. Mallory, before the war a Senator Grain & Flour Sacks, from Florida, and during the rebellion Davis' Secretary of the Navy, has written a letter from the prison in which he is confined, in which he urges upon the people of he generally. Florida to accept the destruction of slavery as a fact, and to "regard the negro not only as a freeman, but as a permanent-indeed, its most permanent-resident of the State; his interests identified with hers; his life, liberty and property entitled to her protection; thus viewing him, we shall be better able to see what the dictates of self-interest, no less than those of justice and expediency

He declares that negroes ought to have qual standing in court: "Apart from higher motives, moral courage, and a sense of personal honor must recede and go hand in hand with truth; and we know how far his condition and training as a slave were calculated to de velop these virtues. But this objection is only addressed to his credibility, and whatever might be my opinion upon this point, in sachs and barryls, which will be sold at manufacturer's prices, freights added. I would still admit him to the witness box, where known and notorious liars are frequently admitted, and where their very acudacity not unfrequently aids in bring-ng truth to light. As to education for the blacks, he says As a freeman, the obstacles which legis tion opposed to his instruction no longer exist, and it will be for the State to determine, in effect, whether her interests will be best promoted by a permanently ignorint and degraded, or by an instructed and nlightened class of free labor.

Finally. Mr. Mallory asserts that the GROCERIES. asserted right of secession" was overbrown by the war, and must be "surrendered." "Having been heard and defeated n every tribunal," he writes, "let us regard the point as forever settled."

The War of Nicholas.

The consumption of human life during the reign of Nicholas, late Emperor of Russia, was enormous. He carried on war with the Circassians uninteruptedly for 28 years. at an annual cost of 20,000 lives on the Russian side alone, making a grand total of New and Fashionable Goods 600,000 who perished in attempting to subdue the independence of Circassia. In the two campaigns against Persis, the Hungarian campaign, and the two Polish campaigns of 1831-32, there are not sufficient data to form a correct idea of the loss of the Opposite the "Lamar House," you all had better leave! For all have should be borne in mind that no estimate to attempted to be made of the sacrifice of human life on the side of those who fought ammunition to our former slaves to murder for their liberties against the aggression of Russia.
